DRIV 1110 - Taxi Industry and Driver Safety

This course provides a review of taxi operations (pre- and post-trip inspections, money transactions, trip sheets, taxi stands, etc.), rules and regulations, map book skills, Global Positioning System (GPS) and major routes and destinations within the Metro Vancouver region. Taxicab drivers are victims of assault and homicide at a level that is one of the highest of any occupational group in North America. The course includes strategies to identify ways for drivers to reduce risk of assault, reduce conflict with customers, and take action to minimize risk when violence occurs.

Length: 13 hours (2 days) + 2.5 Hour Exam* Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm
Tuition Fee: $195.02 including Learner Service Fee (LSF)

DRIV 1120 - WorldHost and Serving Customers with Disabilities

The topics in this course include: the importance of customer service skills, the importance of tourism in the provincial economy, making a positive first impression, tips for improving communication, serving customers with disabilities, handling customer concerns, effective listening, and managing change. The course will also review appropriate language for discussing the eight major disabilities (impairments of mobility, agility, vision, or hearing, and blindness, deafness, mental disability, and mental illness). Principles for transporting people who experience specific disabilities will be discussed and demonstrated.

Length: 10 hours (2 days) Time: 10:00 am – 3:30 pm
Tuition Fee: $151.64 including Learner Service Fee (LSF)

DRIV 1130 - Collision Avoidance Driving

This course combines in-class and hands on driver training. The course enrolls five participants per class and gives each person ample time to practice new driving techniques and receive feedback from the instructor, other participants, and the on-board computer analyst that registers the smoothness of braking, accelerating, and steering. Participants practice strategies to prevent collisions and receive feedback about their personal strengths and weaknesses as drivers. This course helps drivers develop the key attitudes and road skills required to be a safe professional driver. (Students must bring BC Drivers' License for this class).

Length: 7 hours (1 day) Time: 8:00 am – 3:30 pm
Tuition Fee: $189.51 including Learner Service Fee (LSF)
